CLASSIFICATION.  East Germany  REPORT NO.  XT in the Eggesin Area  XX1  EVALUATION  PLACE OBTAINED  DATE OF CONTENT.  22 to 30 July 1953  XA1  EVALUATION  PLACE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED  27 August 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES  2 ENCLOSURES (80. & WPE).  REMARKS  25X1X  25X1X  1. Between 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern edge of E. eain appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVPs and 100 Soviet of Micros. About 9 a.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reals left the installation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Marpin. About 100 turnes were counted within two. About 8 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installations At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian choth went to the realizond datainon. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machins gums, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed beyonets and subsequently engaged in close-combet practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks instellations in the wooded area and provened warpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the vooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks instellations in the wooded area and provened warpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the vooded area southeast of Eggesin continued, More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks instellations in the wooded area and provened warpin.	ELLOFAX	Approved For Release 2003/02/27 . CIA-RDF00-000 10A002440 1400 10-9	40
NATE OBTAINED  22 to 30 July 1953  NATE OBTAINED  23 and 30 July 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES  2 ENCLOSURES (80. & TYPE)  REMARKS  25X1X  25	COLIMITAL	CLASSIFICATION SECURITY INFORMATION	c iviliandiroru u su uroiddiro silir ili Gilli. T
PLACE OBTAINED  21 to 30 July 1953  X1 DATE OBTAINED  DATE OBTAINED  DATE OBTAINED  DATE OBTAINED  DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED  27 August 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES  ENCLOSURES (80. & TYPE)  REMARKS  25X1X  25X1X  1. Between 21 and 30 July 1955, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern adge of Sc eain appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 kVPs and 100 Soviet officers. Nout 9 a.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the installation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. Shout 100 tursts were counted within two hours. About 3 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 kVPs equiped with enrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian cloth went to the realizond station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machins gums, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed beyonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice, in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Nost of the buildings under construction mere 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-morn and part road and part road and part 10-meter-wides, leading through the wooded area in southeast on thesat			Emmirina di tributa di Salah dari Salah dar
DATE OF CONTENT  21 to 30 July 1953  REFERENCES  PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)  REMARKS  25X1X  25X1X  1. Between 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern edge of Eg esin appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVFs and 100 Soviet officers. Hout 9 e.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the installation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 tursts were counted within two hours. About 8 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVFs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian cloth went to the redironal attainon. On 25 July, ebcut 15 men were training with light machins gums, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed beyonets and subsequently engaged in close-combet practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the berracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Nost of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meters wide; they included three and four-story structures.	X1	NA AN AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AN	25)
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE).  25X1X  1. between 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern adge of Ec esin appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVFs and 100 Soviet officers. Hour 9 a.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the instellation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 bursts were counted within whours. About 3 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVFs equipped with entrenching tools, left the instellation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 disclarged VFs in civilian cloth went to the realizond station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machine guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed bayonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the building under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meter-wide leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast			agentum gere, elektroman inggeneren i ing
25X1X  1. Letween 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern edge of E esin appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KWPs and 100 Soviet officers. Hout 9 e.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the instellation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 burds were counted within two hours. About 3 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KWPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged WPs in civilian cloth went to the railroad station. On 25 July, about 15 men were treatning with light machins guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed bayonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the berracks instellations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Nost of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 13-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast			and a section of the control of the
25X1X  1. between 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern edge of Eg esin appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVPs and 100 Soviet officers. Hour 9 a.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the installation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 bursts were counted within two hours. About 3 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian cloth went to the radiroad station. On 25 July, ebcut 15 men were treining with light machine guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed beyonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast			ennessia france i la la la combi. La la combi
1. Between 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern edge of Ec esti appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVPs and 100 Soviet officers. About 9 e.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the installation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 tursts were counted within two hours. About 8 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian cloth went to the railroad station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machine guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed beyonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks instellations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast	PAGES	2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	REGRETALISM CLOSEDA EL SCATIONO PIO PI
1. Between 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern edge of E eain appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVPs and 100 Soviet officers. About 9 e.m. on 21 July, a signel deteil of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the instellation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 bursts were counted within two hours. About 8 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in ctvilian cloth went to the railroad station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machine guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed beyonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast	REMARKS.		ASSANCE SERVICE SERVICE (SERVICE) SERVICE SERV
1. Between 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern edge of Ec esin appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVPs and 100 Soviet officers. Hout 9 e.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the instellation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 bursts were counted within two hours. About 8 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian cloth went to the radiroad station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machins guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed beyonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks instellations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast	with the opening of the second		resser er esteretten å kiskal från ette sten i til
1. Between 21 and 30 July 1953, the occupation of the Bereitschaftslager (camp) at the southern edge of Eg esin appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVPs and 100 Soviet officers. About 9 e.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the installation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 tursts were counted within two hours. About 3 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian cloth went to the railroad station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machins guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed bayonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast	O STANIS OF LIBERTY - SOURCE SERVICE S	Hard-hard springers are not on the same of	CONSIDERATION OF THE PROPERTY AND A
the southern edge of Equation appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVPs and 100 Soviet officers. About 9 a.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the installation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 bursts were counted within two hours. About 8 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian cloth went to the railroad station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machine guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed bayonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast	25X1X		- Author and Authority and Aut
the southern edge of Equation appeared to be unchanged and was estimated at 3,000 KVPs and 100 Soviet officers. About 9 a.m. on 21 July, a signal detail of about 30 men equipped with field telephones and cable reels left the installation. In the morning on the same day, the noise of intensive artillery firing was heard from the direction of Karpin. About 100 bursts were counted within two hours. About 3 a.m. on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching tools, left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian cloth went to the railroad station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training with light machine guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fixed bayonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows north of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks, each occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. About 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns left the camp toward Karpin.  2. During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equipment for the barracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the buildings under construction were 100 meters long and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved road, about 10-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast
	2.	direction of Karpin. About 100 tursts were counted within two hours. About 8 on 23 July, 20 trucks, each with about 20 KVPs equipped with entrenching too left the installation. At about 2 p.m., about 160 discharged VPs in civilian went to the railroad station. On 25 July, about 15 men were training light machine guns, while about 45 men practiced advancing by bounds with fit bayonets and subsequently engaged in close-combat practice in the meadows not of Jagen (forest section) No 259. In the morning on 29 July, about 40 trucks occupied by 25 men armed with rifles, left the camp toward the wooded area. 8 a.m. on 30 July, about 150 men armed with rifles and light machine guns lecamp toward Karpin.  During the reported period, construction work in the wooded area southeast of Eggesin continued. More than 100 trucks with construction material and equip for the barracks installations in the wooded area daily proceeded to the construction site. Most of the buildings under construction were 100 meters and 25 meters wide; they included three and four-story structures. A paved rabout 10-meter-wide, leading through the wooded area in southwest-northeast	a.m. ls, clothes with xed rth , each About ft the ment long

FEORET

TASSISTATION

	SE	CR 97		25X1A
		•	es 2 es
25X1A
Comment.			ssumption that no	rmal todining

SECRET